"We first launched Old Pro Gose in 2013 and we were excited to show local beer drinkers that sour beers can be approachable, easy-drinking beers," said Adam Benesch, CEO of UNION Craft Brewing. "With the Old Pro Par-Tee Pack, we're thrilled to offer a selection of sour ales that are approachable, refreshing, and perfect for sharing with friends. Whether you're soaking up the sun at the beach or perfecting your mini-golf stroke, these beers are sure to add a twist of tartness to your day."

"We at Old Pro Golf are proud that the creators of Old Pro beer associate us with their memories of Ocean City. We have been in business for over 60 years and generations of families have made us a part of their vacations. Union Craft Brewing first released Old Pro beer at Old Pro Golf several years ago and it has created more "Old Pro" memories. We hope our relationship continues for years to come," said Larry Shockley, General Manager of Old Pro Golf.
